UNIT – II

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below: 5

It is no doubt true that we cannot go through life without sorrow. There can be no sunshine without shadow. We must not complain that roses have thorns, But rather be grateful thorns bear flowers. Our experience here is so complex that we must expect much sorrow and suffering. Many people distress and torment themselves about the mystery of existence. But although a good man may at times be angry with the world. It is certain that no man was ever discontented with the world who did his duty in it. The world is like a looking glass. If you smile it smiles if you frown, it frowns back. If you look at it through a red glass, all seems red and rosy, if through a blue, all blue, if through a smoked one, all dull and dingy always try then to look at the bright side to things almost everything in the world has a bright side.

- Q.1: What should be our attitude towards life?
